So, as you may have heard, I, along with a small contingency of studio tanned soldiers took a short expedition to Hawaii and spent a not so tropical but nonetheless fun filled weekend locked down in the studio working with Mr. West.

Kanye sang on a song I wrote called HURRICANE for our new 30 SECONDS TO MARS record and we experimented and explored on some other ideas as well. It was great. And he sounds amazing on the song. We may not have brought back any island tans but we did bring back the final track and it was an unforgettable trip.

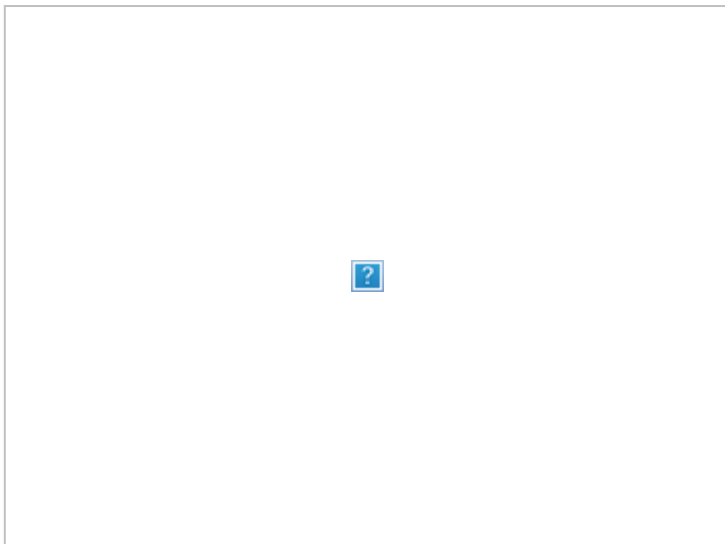

P.S. Brandon Flowers is the nicest guy on the planet and has a great sense of direction. We may not have found our way home that night without him. Thanks Brandon.

P.P.S. We hope to see you all on Sunday, April 26th in Hollywood, CA for "The Summit" at... THE AVALON
More details coming.

We have many more secrets and surprises that we can't wait to share with you.....sooooooon

Here's a pic I took of Kanye working his MPC.
